FREEDOM THROUGH FASTING

WHEN GOD OPENS THE IMPOSSIBLE ROAD

*I will

REST

(MATTHEW 11:28)

MIRACLES AT KAKINADA

The city of Kakinada, Andhra Pradesh, witnessed a mighty move of God during the Kakinada Peace Prayer Festival and Partners Meet, held from May 9 to 11, 2025, at MC LAURIN High School Ground. Hosted by Jesus Calls Ministries, the event was led by Dr. Paul Dhinakaran and Sis. Evangeline Paul Dhinakaran, and drew a crowd of nearly 30,000 people from across the region.

The three-day Peace Prayer Festival unfolded with powerful moments of ministry each evening:

Day 1: Dr. Paul Dhinakaran shared from Isaiah 41:13, proclaiming God's promise to uphold His people. Worship led by students from Karunya University created a heavenly atmosphere.

Day 2: Sis. Evangeline Paul Dhinakaran delivered a message from Isaiah 30:18, emphasizing God's compassionate nature. Students testified about God's faithfulness in their lives, and a deep sense of the Holy Spirit's joy filled the atmosphere. Many were healed and baptized in the Spirit.

Day 3: Dr. Paul Dhinakaran preached from John 14:27, declaring peace over sorrow and sin. Sis. Evangeline led a powerful prayer for the infilling of the Holy Spirit. Dignitary MLA Vanamadi Venkateswara Rao honored the event with his presence. Thousands of prayer requests were brought before the Lord, and testimonies of healing and miracles abounded.

One profound testimony was shared by Sister Padma, a devoted believer who had come burdened for her two sons-one who was unemployed and unmarried, and the other who was longing for a child. During the service, Dr. Paul Dhinakaran prophetically called out her name and spoke directly into her situation. She testified that she felt God's supernatural peace and comfort flood her heart, and she left filled with hope and renewed faith for her family.

The Kakinada Peace Prayer Festival made people experience healing, restoration, and the tangible love of God.

KAKINADA PASTORS MEET

On May 10, 2025, a special Pastors Meet was held as part of the festival, bringing together thousands of pastors and Christian leaders from Kakinada and surrounding regions.

A significant moment during the meeting was a burden laid on the heart of Dr. Paul Dhinakaran to intercede for peace between India and Pakistan amidst the ongoing tension. United in one spirit, the pastors cried out to the Prince of Peace, believing God to bring calm to the storm. In a miraculous turn of events, just two hours later at 3:35 PM, India officially announced a ceasefire - bringing hope and relief to many. This timely answer to prayer stood as a testimony to God's faithfulness and the prophetic authority given to His servants.

KAKINADA PARTNERS MEET

The Jesus Calls Partners Meet was held in Kakinada on the 11th of May, 2025, one of the festival days, drawing dedicated partners of the ministry who came with expectation and faith. Dr. Paul Dhinakaran preached the Word of God with power and compassion, leading a Spirit-filled time of intercession and prophecy. He fervently prayed for God's blessings to be poured out upon each partner, laying hands on them and ministering individually along with Sis. Evangeline Paul Dhinakaran. The prayer oil was anointed and blessed, symbolizing healing and consecration.

Many attendees shared testimonies of how Jesus Calls Ministries has been a channel of divine blessing, hope, and breakthrough in their lives. The presence of God moved tangibly in the meeting, filling hearts with perfect peace, healing, and joy. The unity among pastors, the strengthening of ministry partners, and the public declaration of peace through prophetic intercession all contributed to a powerful spiritual revival in the region.

KAKINADA PASTORS MEET

CARRY THE BURDEN OF Jesus

"COME TO ME,
ALL YOU WHO LABOR AND ARE HEAVY LADEN,
AND I WILL GIVE YOU REST." (MATTHEW 11:28)

My precious friend,

God is going to remove all your burdens this month and give you rest as you come to Jesus. Matthew 11:28 says, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." The Lord has impressed upon me that this year will be a year of rest for His servants. All the battles they have been fighting, and all the obstructions they have been facing, will be removed by the Lord and they will be given rest-rest to do God's will. This promise "Come unto Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest", is given to God's servants and His people.

If you read verses 29 and 30, it becomes clear. The Lord says, "Take My yoke upon you... My yoke is easy, and My burden is light." When you take up Jesus' burden, your life becomes light and easy, and you will find rest.

So often, we carry our own burdens daily and pray, "Lord, take care of my children, my spouse, my job, my ministry, my loved ones, my targets, my exams." We bring our concerns to Jesus, yet we continue to carry them ourselves. But the Lord is saying, "My child, carry My burden." And when you do, you will have rest.

Wow, what a wonderful promise! We struggle to carry our own burdens, which are small compared to the burden of the Lord. We may wonder, "How can I carry God's burden?" But remember: God gives grace to the humble. When we humble ourselves and surrender to His will to do what pleases Him, we are carrying His burden.

What is the burden of Jesus?

Firstly, it is to redeem humanity

Dr. Paul Dhinakaran - paul@jesuscalls.org

As 1 Timothy 2:4 says, "It is God's will that all people be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth."

Yes, that is the Lord's burden: that everyone in the world be saved from sin. Everyone should experience the forgiveness of sins that Jesus gives. God's burden is that every person be washed by the blood of Jesus and set free from all sin.

But when the world denies and rejects Him, it becomes a burden to His heart. And that's where God is calling you and me, "Carry My burden." What is that burden? It is to bring the salvation that Jesus purchased through His sacrifice on the cross to every person on earth. This is what God expects us to carry.

In John 9:4-5, Jesus said:

"As long as it is day, we must do the works of Him who sent Me. Night is coming, when no one can work."

We must work while it is still day, because the night is coming, and no one will be able to work then. We are already seeing signs of that approaching night, a time of increasing spiritual darkness.

Isaiah 60:2-3 says:

"Darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and His glory appears over you."

Yes, even as deep darkness spreads, God's glory is rising upon His people.

This is the moment when we must arise and shine carrying Jesus, the Light of the World, into the hearts of others. Jesus once said, "While I am in the world, I am the Light of the world." But now, He has returned to heaven. So He says to us: "My child, you carry Me. You carry My light to the world."

Darkness is coming. A time will arrive when no one will be able to share Jesus because the devil's darkness, spread through wickedness and unrighteousness, will cover the earth. So while it is still day, carry Him to the people.

I am reminded of the powerful testimony of a dear brother, Uttam Kumar Nayak, from Kandhamal. As a young boy, he did not know Jesus. In 1990, his family suffered a devastating blow due to witchcraft, resulting in the death of three family members. Uttam also became seriously ill and fled to Bhubaneswar in search of help. There, he encountered a servant of God who prayed for him, and he was miraculously healed. This encounter led him to surrender his life to Christ. After his recovery, he returned to his village, started a business, and got married. By 1995, he had four children. That same year, he received a Jesus Calls magazine. As he read its messages and testimonies, he felt a strong call to serve God. He wrote to Bro. D.G.S. Dhinakaran, seeking God's will for his life. One week later, he received a reply: "Pray and wait upon the Lord. The door will open for you to do ministry." In 1998, he entered full-time ministry. Though he faced financial struggles, he served faithfully. In 2008, tragedy struck again when riots broke out in his village, claiming many lives and destroying homes. Uttam lost everything and fled with his family to Bhubaneswar, where they were forced to live on the streets.

In 2009, a pastor in Ranchi took them in. While staying there, Uttam heard about the Ranchi Prayer Festival, I was ministering. During the meeting, I suddenly declared, "I see a man here. You have lost everything. The Lord will give you a house and build you up once again." Uttam knew the word was meant for him. That same day, I had laid hands on him and prayed. Soon after, a great miracle unfolded: the pastor's mother, moved by God, gave Uttam a large sum of money to buy a house. Filled with gratitude, he returned to his village and purchased a home—just as the prophecy had foretold. He has lived there for the past 15 years, continuing to serve the Lord. In 2016, he established a church in Bhubaneswar, now home to over 200 worshippers. His entire family is active in ministry, bringing healing and blessings to many. Cancer patients have been healed, and childless couples have received the gift of children through their prayers. Serving the Lord as a family has become his greatest joy.

Yes, support God's ministry. Support the calling to carry Jesus to those who have never known Him. This is the cry of Jesus. We must share the burden of the Lord.

Will you surrender to Him? Will you say, "Yes, Lord, I will carry You to others"? Will you stand with Jesus Calls ministry? Will you stand with Karunya, with SEESHA, or with the ministry God has entrusted to you to remove the burden of sin from others through Jesus Christ?

When you do, the Lord will be so pleased. And remember: He will give you rest. Every part of your life will become restful in Him.

How did Jesus carry the burden?

Look at Him in the Garden of Gethsemane, Luke 22:42–44 captures that powerful moment.

Before He was arrested and taken to be crucified, Jesus prayed, "Father, if You are willing, take this cup from Me. Yet not My will, but Yours be done."

An angel came to strengthen Him, but Jesus would not be comforted. He prayed more earnestly, and His sweat became like drops of blood, falling to the ground.

My father once had a vision of this moment. He saw Jesus in deep travail, and beside Him stood Satan whispering, tempting, and saying, "Surely Jesus will turn back. Surely He will refuse to carry God's burden and choose not to bring salvation to humanity."

But Jesus was victorious. On the other side, the Holy Spirit, the One who helps us in our weaknesses, came to Jesus. He reminded Him of the future. As John 16:13 says, "He will show you things to come."

The Holy Spirit showed Jesus the outcome of His obedience: That if He submitted to the Father's will and carried the burden of salvation, God would raise Him from the dead, God would give Him a name above every name, and multitudes would be saved. The Holy Spirit comforted Him and that's what He does for us too, when we are called to fulfill God's will.

Strengthened by the Spirit, Jesus surrendered, saying: "Not My will, but Yours be done." "I will carry Your burden through My sacrifice to bring salvation to humanity."

And at that moment, Satan fell on his face and cried: "I am finished. I am done. Jesus has overcome me."

After that moment in Gethsemane, Jesus rose and went boldly to the cross. Through all the injustice done to Him, He was never swayed. He prayed for the forgiveness of all, and He offered Himself as the ultimate sacrifice. Through His sacrifice, the path to salvation was opened for all humanity through the blood of Jesus Christ which now cleanses us from all sin.

Yes, Jesus carried the burden of God, and God gave Him rest by raising Him from the dead. And as you surrender yourself to bring the light of Jesus to others, God will raise you up too.

Revelation 12:11 says: “They triumphed over the devil by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony.”

As you proclaim Jesus as the Savior of the world, God will open every door for you.

In Revelation 3:8, Jesus says: “I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut.”

Yes, you will have an open door—an open door to heaven, an open door to the hearts of people, an open door to every blessing that flows from Jesus.

Today, I proclaim this blessing over you in the name of Jesus.

Secondly, Jesus carried the burdens of the people.

In Matthew 9:35-36, when Jesus saw the multitudes following Him, He was moved with compassion. He said, “They are like sheep without a shepherd.”

So He called them: “Come to Me.” He laid His hands on them and healed them. Sickneses left.

Demons fled. Sins were washed away. Families were restored. Joy filled their hearts because of Jesus.

And now, God wants you to carry that same burden, the burden of Jesus. To bring miracles, healing, and restoration to the people in His name. Moses carried that burden but he could not bear it alone.

In Numbers 11:12–15, Moses cries out to God as he leads the Israelites from Egypt to the Promised Land:

“Did I conceive all these people? Did I give them birth? Why do You tell me to carry them in my arms, as a nurse carries an infant? They keep wailing to me, ‘Give us meat to eat!’ Where can I get meat for all these people in the wilderness? If this is how You are going to treat me, please go ahead and kill me—if I have found favor in Your eyes—and do not let me face my own ruin.”

Moses was overwhelmed. He said, “The burden is too heavy for me. I cannot carry it.”

Every true servant of God faces this. We are called to carry the burdens of the people. Ministry is about carrying the tears of others. Mrs. Arulmuzhi and her husband, Muthamizh Selvan, went through many hardships. Her husband's addiction to alcohol stole their family's peace and led to financial struggles, but she remained steadfast in prayer. Regularly visiting the Trichy Jesus Calls Prayer Tower, she received encouragement and support from the prayer intercessors. One day, she heard the testimony of a woman whose husband had been delivered from alcoholism through prayer, and this gave her renewed hope. She claimed the same miracle for her own family. Soon after, however, her husband fell critically ill with jaundice and became incoherent. Doctors lost hope and declared there was nothing more they could do. Desperate, Sis. Arulmuzhi once again turned to the Prayer Tower, where the intercessors prayed fervently, pleading, “Lord, give him a second chance!” God answered powerfully—healing her husband not only from jaundice but also delivering him completely from alcohol addiction. When he recovered, he was a transformed man, filled with peace and free from his old bondage.

When Jesus called my father to do ministry, He appeared to him and said: “My son, I have chosen you to bring comfort to millions and turn them towards Me. From today, I will give you a new heart. When you hear the burdens of others, you will feel them as your own. You will begin to cry. And when you cry, I will come, see your tears, and wipe away theirs.”

That is the heart of carrying the burdens of the people. Because of this calling, my father went through great suffering. Two children died in my mother's womb. Then I was born, and later, my sister Angel. Angel was tragically killed in a cruel car accident at the age of seventeen. So much agony followed, financial hardship, debt, and overwhelming criticism from people who did not understand the heart of Jesus.

Who could truly understand the burden of carrying the pain of others?

The burden of fulfilling God's commands, the burden of carrying people's sorrow, and even the burden of suffering in the body. My father bore that burden. His head was bruised. His eyes were bruised. His lungs failed. His heart stopped. His kidneys died. His legs failed. From head to foot, he had cut marks and scars from surgeries.

He would cry out, "Why, Lord?" And the Lord would say to him, "Unless you go through the agony that others suffer, you will not truly understand their pain. But now, when they come and share their burdens, you will not condemn them. You will weep for them because you have been through it yourself. And as you cry for them, I will see your tears and wipe away theirs."

Yes, my friend, carrying the burdens of others is difficult but Jesus understands. He has been there. When Moses cried out in Numbers 11:16–25, God said to him:

"Moses, you are not meant to carry this burden alone. You are now carrying the burdens of 600,000 men, plus women and children. I will take the Spirit that is upon you and place it upon seventy elders. They will prophesy, and through them, I will comfort, guide, and care for My people."

And God did it. He will do the same for you. He will bring people to walk with you, share the burden with you, and move in the power of His Spirit.

As the Bible says in Acts 2:17:

"In the last days," says the Lord, "I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. Your sons and daughters will prophesy."

My friend, God wants to fill you with His Holy Spirit so you can carry the burdens of others and bring miracles to them.

Would you enroll today as a Jesus Calls prayer intercessor?

Wherever you are even from your home you can take calls from the Jesus Calls Prayer Tower and pray for those who are hurting and desperate for a touch from God. We will train you. And the grace of God will come upon you. I need people who will share this holy burden just like the prophets who stood with Moses.

Would you become an ambassador for Jesus?

God is ready to use you. Now is the time for us to come together to lead people into the Kingdom of God and help them break free from their burdens through the love of Jesus.

You can become a Prayer Intercessor or an Ambassador for Jesus. As an intercessor, you can pray from your own home for those calling the Jesus Calls Prayer Tower. As an ambassador, we will send you to visit and pray for people in your city to carry Jesus to the brokenhearted.

And as you carry these burdens which are not your own, but the burden of Jesus, God will remove your burden.

Just like Job. He prayed for his friends, and the Lord restored him. God removed his captivity and gave him back double what he had lost. May that blessing come upon you today.

PRAYER: Loving Father, I pray for your mighty Holy Spirit to fill the heart of your son, your daughter. Give them a new heart—not just to carry their own burdens, but to carry Your burden: to bring salvation, healing, and miracles to others. Holy Spirit, come upon them now. Anoint them, Lord. Fill them with Your wisdom, understanding, and revelation. Let the power of Jesus flow through them. Let them have visions. Let the prophetic anointing rise up. Let them cast out devils and bring peace. Bless them, Lord. Give them grace to bring salvation to many. Remove their burdens. Work miracles in their personal lives. Thank You for doing it, Lord. In Jesus' name, Amen.

JESUS CALLS AUSTRALIA PRAYER TOWER

A SUPERNATURAL HEALING

My wife, Sue, and I have been volunteers at the Jesus Calls Prayer Tower in Sydney, Australia, since its opening 25 years ago. It has been a great privilege to serve the Lord through this ministry of love and compassion.

In October, Sue and I travelled to Singapore to celebrate our 50th wedding anniversary and birthdays. On the evening of October 13th, while attending a show, I began to feel unwell. Thinking it was indigestion, we returned to rest. Around midnight, I experienced severe chest pain. I was rushed to the hospital, placed in an induced coma, and given just a 2% chance of survival.

Sue contacted the Jesus Calls Prayer team. Prayer intercessors fasted and prayed. We held onto God's promises from Psalm 46:10, Isaiah 26:3, and others. Our children flew to be with us and promised to walk me out of the hospital—and they did. After ten days and a defibrillator implant, I was discharged. Despite a bill of AUD117,000, God provided through generous support. We returned home to praise God with joy. May this testimony remind you: God still works miracles.

GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME

I am a Jesus calls partner. For the past 2 years we were trying to purchase a house. We saved for the deposit and started looking for the house. One of the major banks gave us conditional approval and so we signed the contract with the vendor. After verifying all the documents they said that they can only lend 60% of the value of the house. I had just done school enrolment for my children and so I was really devastated. At that moment I called the Australia Prayer Tower for prayers and made a vow to send an offering for the relocation of Sydney Prayer Tower. The sister prayed with much burden quoting promise verses, assuring the Lord's grace and favor. Amazingly, within a week my loan got approved from another major bank and I bought the same house in a month's time with $10,000 less than the initial agreement. We then gave our offering for the Prayer Tower. We thank the lord Jesus Christ for His endless grace and mercy and all the prayer intercessors for their prayers. Praise the lord.

Reaching MILLIONS WITH REAL-TIME HOPE

The Lord has blessed the Jesus Calls ministry with a divine mandate-to bring His love, healing, and comfort to multitudes. Today, this mission takes a new and exciting step forward through the Emmanuel Digital Project (EDP). This God-inspired initiative aims to digitally transform how the ministry serves its partners, making prayer, encouragement, and teaching available anytime, anywhere.

WHAT IS THE EMMANUEL DIGITAL PROJECT?

The Emmanuel Digital Project is a bold step in digital ministry innovation. It seeks to develop an upgraded CRM software system, a newly designed website, and a powerful mobile app to connect more effectively with Jesus Calls partners around the globe. The goal is simple: serve people better, faster, and more personally-with Christ-centered care.

By leveraging modern technology, the EDP will allow partners to interact seamlessly with the ministry-whether they're submitting a prayer request, joining a special event, or giving to support God's work.

WHAT WILL YOU GET FROM THIS PROJECT?

As the ministry continues to grow, so does the need for deeper, faster, and more efficient connections. The Emmanuel Digital Project will:

- * Provide real-time responses to urgent prayer requests, including those facing critical health or personal crises.
- * Send personalized messages, teachings, and prayers based on each partner's spiritual journey.
- * Offer immediate access to prayer and pastoral support, especially for those hospitalized, depressed, or isolated.
- * Simplify event registration for programs like Healing Crusades, Couples Retreats, Business Blessing Meetings, and Anointing Services.
- * Streamline giving, enabling partners to send their tithes and offerings quickly and securely through the app or website.
- * This is more than a technology upgrade-it's a ministry upgrade. The Emmanuel Digital Project will enable Jesus Calls to fulfill its mission with greater excellence, compassion, and reach.

What has been accomplished so far?

By God's grace and the faithful prayers of partners, significant progress has already been made:

CRM Software Development: Integration testing for a core module is underway to ensure smooth functionality and reliability.

Website Redesign: New navigation and user-friendly page layouts are being finalized to make the platform easy for every age group.

Mobile App Testing: Integration between the app and the backend software is currently being tested to ensure real-time synchronization.

These efforts represent the foundation of a powerful tool for ministry.

But much more needs to be done before the full vision is realized.

What Still Needs to Be Done?

To complete this God-given assignment, several key milestones must be reached:

- * Finalize system integrations and launch a fully functional CRM platform.
- * Implement real-time notification features for prayer responses and teachings.
- * Develop robust security features to protect user data and ensure safe online giving.
- * Train staff and volunteers to use the digital platforms efficiently for better service.
- * Launch the new mobile app on both Android and iOS platforms with prayer access, event updates, and donation features.
- * The estimated total cost of this transformative project is Rs. 5 Crores. To fulfill this vision, we need faithful believers like you to stand with us.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN WHEN YOU SOW IN THIS PROJECT?

Supporting the Emmanuel Digital Project is sowing into good soil. The Word of God assures us in 2 Corinthians 9:6, "Whoever sows generously will also reap generously." Your faithful giving will:

- * Bring healing and hope to thousands in their time of greatest need.
- * Advance the Gospel to new regions and generations through digital outreach.
- * Build your legacy in heaven, as each soul touched through this project is added to your spiritual account.
- * Invite God's abundant blessing into your life, as He honors every act of obedience and generosity.

HOW CAN PARTNERS SUPPORT?

You can support this initiative by choosing one of the following giving options:

☐ $100 ☐ $250 ☐ $500 ☐ $_____ (Any amount as led by the Lord)

Every contribution, big or small, is a step toward bringing God's love and comfort to millions of souls in need. (While sending your offering, please mention that it is meant for the 'Emmanuel Digital Project'.)

You can send your offering through any of the following ways:

Dear friend,

God says, "Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke... then your light will break forth like the dawn, and your healing will quickly appear" (Isaiah 58:6,8)

Freedom THROUGH Fasting

Fasting is one of the most powerful spiritual disciplines in the life of a believer. When combined with prayer and faith, fasting has the potential to break strongholds, release divine intervention, and usher in deliverance - not only for ourselves, but also for our loved ones. As Isaiah 58 reminds us, fasting is not just about personal piety; it is a divine weapon to "loose the chains" and "set the oppressed free."

In 2024, Neeraja, a woman from Andhra Pradesh, India, underwent a routine uterine surgery. But shortly after the operation, a complication caused her heart to stop beating for 15 minutes. Her family was devastated, and doctors were losing hope. Neeraja's sister Mary was thousands of miles away in Israel when she received the call. Overwhelmed, she immediately turned to God in fasting and prayer, partnering with the Jesus Calls Telephone Prayer Tower in India.

For three days, Mary fasted and cried out to God for Neeraja's life. During this time, she felt the Lord strengthening her with His promises, especially Psalm 107:20 - "He sent out His word and healed them; He rescued them from the grave." On the third day, Neeraja's heart miraculously resumed beating. When she regained consciousness, she shared a mysterious experience: she had felt a warm presence and a touch that brought her back. The doctors were stunned, but Mary knew - God had intervened in response to fasting, faith, and fervent prayer.

Fasting in the Bible: Esther's Bold Stand

The Bible is filled with stories of how fasting led to deliverance. One of the most powerful examples is Queen Esther. When the Jewish people faced annihilation, Esther called for a three-day fast: "Go, gather together all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day" (Esther 4:16). She understood that the battle wasn't only political - it was spiritual. As the people fasted and sought God's mercy, divine favor was released. The king's heart turned toward Esther, and the plot against the Jews was overturned. Their deliverance came not by might or manipulation, but through fasting and prayer.

Why Fasting Matters in Intercession

Fasting humbles us (Psalm 35:13) and aligns our hearts with God's will. It sharpens our spiritual discernment and increases our authority in prayer. Jesus Himself said, "This kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting" (Matthew 17:21, NKJV), referring to a boy oppressed by a demon. When His disciples couldn't cast it out, Jesus revealed that certain breakthroughs require more than ordinary prayer—they demand sacrificial intercession. When we fast for our loved ones, we stand in the gap for them, especially when they are too weak, wounded, or far from God to pray for themselves. Like the friends who tore open the roof to bring a paralyzed man to Jesus (Mark 2:4), our fasting is an act of love and spiritual warfare.

Practical Steps for Fasting for a Loved One

Begin with a burden: Ask God to reveal who He wants you to fast for and what breakthrough is needed.

Choose your fast: Whether it's a full fast, partial fast (like Daniel's), or skipping one meal a day, commit your body and time to the Lord.

Immerse in Scripture: Feed your spirit with God's Word. Declare promises like Isaiah 49:25 - "I will contend with those who contend with you, and your children I will save."

Pray persistently: Fasting without prayer is just hunger. Cry out specifically for your loved one's deliverance, protection, or salvation.

Expect divine intervention: Trust that God hears and will respond in His perfect way and time.

God is still in the business of setting captives free. Your fasting may be the catalyst that breaks addiction, heals sickness, brings prodigals home, or softens a hardened heart. Just as Jesus fasted and overcame (Matthew 4), you too can fast in victory, knowing that "The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective" (James 5:16, NIV).

Let your love be demonstrated through fasting. Just as Mary interceded for Neeraja and Esther stood for her people, your act of spiritual sacrifice may be the very tool God uses to bring deliverance to those you love most.

SECURED GOVERNMENT JOB

Enrolled by my mother in the Young Partners Plan, I was determined to succeed in my studies and, by God's grace, achieved top scores in my 10th and 12th exams. But my joy turned to sorrow when I lost my father, leaving our family in financial distress. Clinging to faith, I declared, "I am a Young Partner. Lord, You will help me"-and He did, blessing me with a 9.3 CGPA in my degree. After completing my master's, I faced setbacks in government job exams, but my mother enrolled me in the Job Blessing Plan. As I attended fasting prayers and U-turn meetings at the Prayer Tower, God touched me deeply, and I miraculously secured a government job. Though I lost my earthly father, Jesus, my Heavenly Father, established me beautifully.

My friend, today is a day of hope.

No matter what you're facing right now, I want to remind you that our God is a God of new beginnings. Isaiah 43:18-19 says, "Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing!" God is not finished with you. In fact, He is about to do something brand new in your life. Live by that promise.

Psalm 78:53 says, "He led them safely, so

Maybe you feel like that today.

Maybe you're facing a challenge so big that it looks like there's no way out. Maybe it feels like everything you hoped for is on the other side of an ocean you can't cross. You might be asking, "Why would God bring me to such a place? Why would He lead me straight into a dead end?"

But what we often see as a dead end, God sees as the perfect place for a miracle.

God didn't bring the Israelites to the Red Sea to abandon them. He brought them there to show them His power—to open a way where there was no way. And He'll do the same for you. The very sea that seemed they were not afraid; but the sea overwhelmed their enemies." This verse points to a powerful moment in Israel's history. The Israelites were standing at the edge of the Red Sea—trapped. Behind them, Pharaoh's army was chasing after them. In front of them, an enormous body of water blocked their way. They couldn't go forward, and they couldn't go back.

WHEN GOD OPENS THE IMPOSSIBLE

ROAD

- SAMUEL DHINAKARAN

to block them became their pathway to freedom.

Even more amazing? The same Red Sea that opened up for the Israelites swallowed up

samuel@jesuscalls.org

their enemies. What was a way forward for God's people became a trap for those who tried to harm them.

That's how our God works.

He doesn't just deliver you-He defeats what's chasing you.

Think about the story of Haman in the book of Esther. Haman was a high-ranking official in Persia who hated a man named Mordecai. Out of pride and jealousy, Haman built a gallows to hang Mordecai. But in a divine twist, God turned the tables: Haman was the one who ended up being executed on the very gallows he built.

The trap he set for someone else became his own downfall.

That's how God deals with those who plot against His children. He turns evil plans on their heads. While the wicked fall into their own traps, God lifts up those who trust in Him.

WHAT WE OFTEN SEE AS A DEAD END, GOD SEES AS THE PERFECT PLACE FOR A MIRACLE

So if you're facing a Red Sea today-a big obstacle, a painful situation, or a moment of uncertainty-don't be afraid. God may have led you to this very place to show you that He can make a way through it. What looks like the end might just be the beginning of something amazing.

He is still the God who parts seas. He is still the God who shuts the mouths of lions.

He is still the God who takes what was meant to harm you and turns it into a testimony.

Hold on to that. Choose to walk in faith instead of fear. Lift your eyes from the sea in front of you to the Savior beside you.

He will lead you in safety. You will not be afraid.

And what overwhelms your enemies... will be the very thing that sets you free.

Let's believe it. Let's receive it.

TOUCHING AND HEALING THE BROKENHEARTED AT THANJAVUR

The Partners Meet was held at St. Peter's Church Parish Hall, Thanjavur on April 26th, 2025, with 800 people attending. Many shared powerful testimonies of how Jesus Calls and SEESHA have transformed their lives.

Dr. Paul Dhinakaran preached from Colossians 1:20, emphasizing God's covenant of peace through the blood of His cross, and fervently prayed for God's blessings. Sis. Evangeline Paul Dhinakaran led an anointed prayer, calling for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, healing, restoration, and joy. Each partner was individually prayed for and ministered to with God's love and compassion.

On April 27th, 2025, they ministered at the Family Blessing Special Sunday Service at God's House premises, where hundreds gathered to receive God's Word and blessings for their families. Both meetings were marked by God's mighty presence, bringing healing, deliverance, and peace to all who attended.

You are the Members of the Household of God

Sister Stella Dhinakaran

We are going to examine and meditate on how blessed this kind of life is and thereby receive these blessings in our own lives. In order that all of us should enjoy this divine life, the God of gods sent Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son in to this world and made him incarnate as the 'Saviour'. Except Him, none can give us this salvation. For this purpose, He offered Himself as a living sacrifice on the cross.

You are Members of God's Household

"Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone." (Ephesians 2:19,20)

How was our old, sinful life? As read in Ephesians 2:2-5, by the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ on the cross, for our sake, we received the divine grace to become members of God's household.

In the Gospel of Luke, 19th chapter, we clearly read about the life of a man called Zacchaeus, who was short in stature and who did not know much about the Lord Jesus Christ and how he accepted the Lord as His own and how his family became God's children, pleasing to Him. Once, when the Lord Jesus entered and passed through Jericho, Zacchaeus met Jesus and through that his whole family got the gift of salvation. In the Bible, we read about this miracle of his entire family becoming members of God's household.

In the same manner, in the Book of Acts, chapter 9, we clearly read about a man called Saul, who did many things against Jesus and who lived as a son of perdition and how he became the Lord's child and how he had the privilege of inheriting God's house. As read in Romans 9:22, 23, the Lord Jesus Christ offered Himself as a living sacrifice on the cross in order that everyone who is a vessel of wrath, liable to earn His wrath, to become a vessel of mercy, to make known the riches of His glory; He shed His blood, delivered us from our sins, transgressions, and curses and thus would change us into new creations in Christ as seen in II Corinthians 5:17 and make us the members of His own household. Paul, who had received this divine life, and thus belonging to God's own house, joyfully declares, "It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me" (Galatians 2:20).

Dear ones! God wants to change each one of you into 'members of His household'. So, look up to the cross alone. He will do miracle in your life as well and grant you this divine life. You shall become members of Christ's household. You would also joyfully say, "It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me."

House Filled with the Lord's Blessings

"The blessing of the Lord makes one rich, and He adds no sorrow with it." (Proverbs 10:22)

This is the divine blessing that the Lord had bestowed upon Abraham, His chosen one.

"I will make you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you." (Genesis 12:2,3)

Since his childhood, Joseph sought the Lord in reverence. God was so close to him that He spoke to him through dreams. Not believing him, his family members were annoyed with him and tried to destroy his life. However, since Joseph sought the Lord faithfully in reverence and in all sincerity, even in the midst of dire situations, He stayed with him. After his excruciating sufferings, God, not only blessed him beyond measure but also made his family members receive blessings through him. Yes, for this reason, David also writes,

"Those who seek the Lord shall not lack any good thing."

(Psalm 34:10)

Dearly beloved, today, most of you might be in tears because of lack of blessings in your personal and family life. Many people even try to end their lives as they go through the path of various sufferings, instead of enjoying any blessing. They are heartbroken and grieved to such an extent that they do not want to live. However, He never forsakes His people who hold on to Him firmly and who place their entire trust and faith on Him, like men of God like Abraham and Joseph. Even today, the Lord would grant His blessings to His servants, who hold on to Him faithfully, exceedingly abundantly above all that they ask or think.

Several years back, when my husband Bro. D.G.S Dhinakaran got his official transfer to Chennai, we stayed in a small, rented house. Even in that poor state, we did the Lord's ministry faithfully and reverentially. According to the verse, 'A faithful man will abound with blessings' (Proverbs 28:20), through the Society of the bank where my husband was working, miraculously we got a big house of our own in Arumbakkam, Chennai. Here, many people visited us for prayers and went back with God's blessings. It was here that the office of the Jesus Calls ministry was set up in a separate room, for the first time.

My dear ones, this God would meet all your needs and fill you with His abundant blessings.

You shall be members of God's Household and His Temple

(Ephesians 2:19)

Because of the men of God like Noah and Abraham, God filled their family also with His divine blessings. Today, are you arising and shining for the Lord as good witnesses as a family and as descendants? Joshua, the man of God, faithfully served the Lord as a family, saying, “But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord” (Joshua 24:15). In the Book of Acts, 10th chapter, we read about a man called Cornelius receiving divine blessings in his family life. He was not a Jew but a gentile. Acts 10:2 reads that he was a ‘devout man and one who feared God with all his household, and prayed to God always’. As a result, the Lord spoke to Peter, His disciple and made him go to the house of Cornelius. We read about this in Acts 10:5,6. How did the Lord bless Cornelius’ house, for this reason?

“...in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the spirit.”

(Ephesians 2:21,22)

You are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God. Jesus Christ Himself is the chief cornerstone for that. Your house grows into a holy temple in the Lord.

Yes, dear ones! This is end time! The Second coming of the Lord is very near. Have you become God’s own and His household? As a family are you filled with the anointing of the Holy Spirit, which Cornelius had? As the Lord Jesus Christ has said in the gospel of Luke 11:13, ask the Lord as a family and in reverence. The Lord is unchanging in His promise. God, who has promised, “it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh” (Joel 2:28; Isaiah 44:3), would surely grant this grace to everyone, who asks Him of this, since He is faithful in His promises. May God grant each one of you His grace to get filled with His gifts and fruits and be good witnesses through the filling of His Spirit and by His power!

You shall also get filled with His divine blessings in your spirit, body and soul, as descendants and as God fearing generation and shall arise and shine for the glory of His name. Your family life shall be filled with divine peace (Psalm 29:11). All the needs in your life would be met and be filled with abundant blessings. Above all, through the filling of the Holy Spirit and by His power, you shall be delivered from the suffering and sorrows in your life and be filled with His grace to make others’ lives also a blessing. What a privilege for you to become the members of God’s household! What a glory!

The blessing of the Lord makes one rich, and He adds no sorrow with it.

Delivering care & dignity TO THE MOST VULNERABLE!

The vulnerable elderly & differently-abled persons face a higher risk of poverty, social exclusion, and limited access to support services. Despite their increased reliance on others due to mobility challenges, many are left feeling isolated and alone.

Recognizing such people's critical needs, SEESHA has been supporting them for many years through its special care projects. Here are a few highlights:

ELDERLY CARE:

SEESHA's Old Age Care Home (OACH) in Karunya Nagar offers a comfortable assisted living facility for neglected elders, offering them personalized care & geriatric support, assuring them a dignified retired life.

Our Elderly Outreach project has been catering to the immediate needs of destitute elderly at Tharangambadi by providing essential dry rations every month and organizing get-togethers to help them feel connected & cared for.

CARE FOR THE DIFFERENTLY ABLED:

- * At our Vanagaram Special Education Centre, we support children with special needs by providing individualized treatment & therapy, improving their quality of life.
- * Through our Community-Based Rehabilitation (CBR) program, we've been offering home-based therapy for bedridden patients through our periodic community visits.
- * SEESHA's Centre for Well-Being in Karunya Nagar offers vital counselling, guidance, and de-addiction services to community members, recognizing the importance of mental well-being for leading healthy lives.

RESTORING HOPE TO THE ABANDONED ELDERLY!

Life has been a struggle after my husband passed, caring for my differently abled daughter alone with no support from my sons. In these trying times, along with the government's PDS support, the monthly dry rations from SEESHA have been a constant source of sustenance for us. The get-togethers organized by SEESHA also bring much comfort, reminding me that I'm not alone!

PRAYERS ANSWERED

Bro. Anthony Muthu and his wife, residents of Coimbatore, had been fervently praying for the marriages of their two daughters for a long time. With unwavering faith, they attended the Bethesda Blessing Meeting held in March, where they sincerely prayed for the Lord's miracle. Trusting in God's perfect timing and plan, they placed their petitions before Him during the meeting. Miraculously, within the same year, their prayers were answered—one daughter was joyfully married in April, and the other in June.

The family was overwhelmed with gratitude and recognized these blessings as divine answers to their heartfelt prayers. As a testimony to God's faithfulness and to honor Him for the miracles, Bro. Anthony Muthu and his family presented a thank offering to the Lord. Their story stands as a powerful witness of how Bethesda Blessing Meetings can bring about miraculous breakthroughs in life's most important matters.

God continues to perform countless mighty miracles through the Bethesda Blessing Meetings.
